TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 30. AN ABSCONDING BANK CASHIER TURNED Up. About the middle of last week Policeman Stone, of the Middle District, observed on one of the wharves of this city a man whose eccentric conduct induced the officer to take him to the Middle District Station. A telegraphic dispatch was sent to Superintendent Kennedy, of New York, at whose request the party, who represented himself as Beardsly Van Alstyne, Cashier and proprietor of the Wayne County Bank at Lyons, State of New York, was taken on to that city on Thursday. The New York papers, noticing his arrival, state that in March last he is alleged to have absconded earlier. Equal to the best brands of Supervicth a large amount of bonds and other securiies, and the bank was found to be insolvent and ruined in consequence of sundry specula-Two gentlemen named Warren had $22,000 reposited, and Mr. A. P. Warren placed the case in Superintendent of Police Kennedy's Lands, who notified all the police bureaus in the United States. Mr. Warren sued out a writ of attachment against $3,700 in gold coin | Packed in bbls. of 250 lbs each. For Winter and some jewelry which was found in the grain, Double-Refined Poudrette and Fine cossession of the prisoner, the same being landed over to the Sheriff by Kennedy. Van Alstyne is a native of New York, and is between 35 and 40 years of age. Before his disappearance he is said to have been a fine looking, healthy man, but he is now a mere wreck of his former self. He states that he lost $30, 000, his individual fortune, by the failure of as good, if not superior, to any ever made or the bank, and his uncle lost $50,000. He also sold in this market, containing a larger amount states that all the assets of the bank were swallowed up by ill-advised schemes of speculation, and in this dilemma he used the funds which had been left with the bank for safe keeping. After leaving Lyons he went to New York, where he raised a loan of $5,000 on the credit of the bank, and with this money
